Women
United

United Way
of Greater New Bedford

WE ARE WOMEN UNITED.

As an integral part of United Way of Greater New Bedford, Women United is a network of individuals leveraging their collective power to elevate and strengthen women through education, action, and philanthropy.

WE IGNITE CHANGE.

Working together towards common goals, we ignite change and help women and families in Greater New Bedford. Women United efforts support early childhood success and literacy through programs, initiatives, and collaborations.

POWERED BY WOMEN UNITED

Women United Leadership Council

The Women United Leadership Council is an advisory body providing leadership and strategic recommendations to UWGNB's Women United.

- Jill Simoes, Chair - JICAN Consulting
- Starlene Alves, Esq. - Alves Law Group
- Cheryl Bartlett - New Bedford Community Health
- Kate Carney - Carney Family Charitable Foundation
- Jennifer Downing - New Bedford Ocean Cluster
- Beth McDermott - Buzzards Bay Coalition
- Guelmie Santiago - Santiago Professional Services

Since 2018, these local programs and initiatives have been made possible through support from Women United members and Power of the Purse.

Financial Futures

Expanding our literacy work, Women United teamed up with Women's Money Matters to offer Financial Futures, a comprehensive financial literacy program for WOMEN. Financial Futures, is a 12-week financial literacy program where participants are paired with a coach for one on one support, encouragement, and accountability. Our goal, provide women the tools, knowledge, and confidence to transform their lives through core money management skills. Learn more or volunteer as a coach or presenter by visiting unitedwayofgnb.org/financial-futures.

Launched
October 2023!

Wash & Read

Creates reading corners at area laundromats for children to read while there and take books home to build their own library to increase literacy and develop a love of reading.
